

Shark Attack

Common Enemy

It's summer again
Let's head to the shore
Jump into our bathing suits,
Grab the boogie board
It's a beautiful day
The water is clear
We dive into the ocean
And we swim with no delay
And with our surf boards
We catch some big waves
Suddenly we're knocked off
By something we can't explain
It's a shark attack!
They circle round, and we're trapped
Oh my god he bit my leg,
The water's red, it's not my day
Is this it, the way I die
Now I'm in his jaws of death,
My guts spill out, there's nothing left
