Skate The Day Away

Common Enemy

It's one o'clock, I just woke up, my head is in a vice I look outside, the weather's nice, how can I pass the time I'm thinking hard, nothing so far, the day is almost threw The bulb went on and then I knew the one thing I must do Skate the day away I grind the curb and trick the box and skate away the day I ollie stones and do great stuff and face plant on the way If you ask and ask just once about why I skate today It's simply so, I just don't know, "it's fine with me" I'll say Grab your board and go! skate the day! Skate the day!
