Inhale

I breathe deep
Like an old man in a deep sleep
Or an Indian peace pipe
Identity be
The beginning, the end, the first, the last
Breathe into infinity
A verse that lasts
Got a chick in the south that be cursin' fast
When there was a drought then her thirst would last

The hunger of a homeless Microphonus Played the game - it got a bonus Man is the plan The master like Tiger So much is the drive I am the definition of a rider Daughter's name means survivor From a tribe-a Colliders Just one word can't describe her A scribe of the streets And a good life that we all wanna reach I'm hotter than a beach Flow is so deep Even underwater I can inhale to bring the world in order
