Fooled By The Serpent

Communic

One morning in the silence of nature Two shadows dance in the sunrise Never knowing what's on the other side of the wall What is it hiding this absence of secrets Behind the gate to the unknown Lying obscure behind these highest walls

What is hiding in the garden of secrets, behind the wall Who is the creator of these illusions of lies A brand new project Eden Evil seeds just waiting to bloom Someone is testing human fate

Living in this world of secrets In an underground sphere of science Searching for the place where all evil began Born into this state of innocence An Arcadia of coming future life Reality strikes When the two headed snake bites

Fooled by the serpent Who took a bite Of the forbidden fruit From the holy tree Fooled by the serpent Someone took a bite Of the forbidden fruit In the garden

What is hiding in the gardens of secrets, behind the wall Who is the creator of these illusions of lies A brand new project Eden Evil seeds just waiting to bloom Someone is testing human fate

Occasional sinners That breeds And form new life

One day someone will go back To the place where all evil began Only those who pray every day will find the light With guidance on their way Heading back to the land behind the gate Back to the land of all evil

I feel cold When the night takes over Will we ever find our peace again We must search for another home far across the fields Towards what tomorrow will bring We will be strong Together we will make it And never be tempted by evil again We must leave To find our new home beyond the sun Hand in hand We'll walk to find the light

Fooled by the serpent Who took a bite Of the forbidden fruit From the holy tree Fooled by the serpent Someone took a bite Of the forbidden fruit In the garden

What is hiding in the gardens of secrets, behind the wall Who is the creator of these illusions of lies A brand new project Eden Evil seeds just waiting to bloom Someone is testing human fate
