Never Come Back

Company Of Thieves

Slow turn out on the corner I will paint your picture and post it in the street And you can best believe I'll kill you like I want to I will bury you in deep

All the thoughts I think of you are constant now Stones will cover up your eyes and keep you from the sea...

Now everyone's on top of it You're runnin' from a gamble Even the nosy neighbors turn I'll mark my lesson learned

All the thoughts I think of you are constant now Crowds will gather in their black dress, sing a melody...

How you cleared the room that night, broke the mirror and spill ed the wine And when your mother died, made me sign the line My body still, against my will You're dirty, sick. I don't exist.

Ooh ooh ooh, ahh ahh ahh ahh Ooh ooh ooh, ahh ahh ahh ahh You'll never come back You'll never come back!
