

What if I said I've
Seen a miracle?
What if I said my
Dreams come true?
Would you believe
I have seen these things
With my own eyes &
Saw the world go dark & dead
& then go green & blue again

You're my Angel.
You're my Devil, too.
When you fall,
Raise your eyes &
Know the sun & moon
Will rise &
Lift you up in love,
Above this mad raging zoo

What if I told you
You were beautiful?
With your scars & missing parts & your
Painted face?
What if I told you,
You were very necessary to the
Chain, the vein, the children of
A young & foolish race?

You're my Angel.
You're my Devil, too.
When you fall,
Raise your eyes &
Know the sun & moon
Will rise &
Lift you up in love,
Above this raging zoo

What if I said I
Saw the future:
& the future was the
Picture in your head?
What if I said to you to Paint another picture & you'd
Wake up in that future that you'd
Painted, & you did?
