

He just let his country down
Didn't give a shit about his country and crown
Look after number one and join the rest
All his colleagues thought it was best

Secret information he passed out
Not too strong, not too hot
Sent out papers one by one
Gotta be carefull or he'd get done

Blunt, Blunt, Blunt he was a cunt
He was one of the gang of four
Blunt, Blunt, Blunt he was a cunt
In this country are there more?

A traitor to his own kind
He joined a gang of red spies
Scurs against his own country
Selling information and lies

Red lies, white lies a traitor to his own country
Behind the enemy lines, the same old lies
Their hidden power and false propaganda
