

Every Day Is A New Life

Conditions

I see it every time that I'm walking around Too many broken faces pointed straight to the ground A brand new beaten posture that is built by the weight Of a brand new world

And I can't help but notice there's a subtle worry looming The broken state of everything is making broken humans It goes on long enough and it awakens evolution And we disappear

Oh no Can't you see you're in control Get out of your heart Get out of your head Let go Every day Is a new life if you say "Get out of my heart Get out of my head Awake I'm alive Asleep I'm dead"

Control what you can Disregard the fabricated law of the land And know that you can do much more with a day Than just survive

The beauty of perspective is how easily it changes Life can be as beautiful and all you want to make it It goes on long enough and evolution is awakened And we carry on

I wait for you to say "I know my life doesn't have to be this way" The darkness doesn't have to swallow you whole I swear you're in control

Get out of my heart Get out of my head Get out of my heart Get out of my head Get out of your heart Get out of your head
