

Hello
I'll press my lips
To yours to explain
Sporadically
Use my tongue to reiterate
In the form of an Oxygen dream
I'm dying to breathe you deeply
Some day, some day
I'll have to turn and walk away
To find my place
I'll search this whole world over
But everything I am
You've got it, you've got it
And I will return
I swear it, I swear it
Don't fear
Though I am gone
I'm still right here
Just like I've been
For twenty-one years
And it's all that
I know how to be
I promise, don't worry about me
Some day, some day
I'll have to turn and walk away
To find my place
I'll search this whole world over
But everything I am
You've got it, you've got it
And I will return
I swear it, I swear it
I'll return to you the day
Your hope is frayed
At all the ends
And I'll cauterize
Your hand in mine
And never let go
Some day, some day
(Some day)
I'll have to turn and walk away
To find my place
(Find my place)
I'll search this whole world over
But everything I am
(All I am)
You've got it, you've got it
And I will return
(I'll return)
I swear it, I swear it
