

Walking Separate Ways

Conditions

I tore my life in two and pulled the ends apart are you seeing who you wanna see 'cause I I feel caught in the middle.

who you wanna see 'cause I I feel caught in the middle.

I'm both the sinner and the gentlemen at heart I except that wi thout questioning 'cause I, I'm so sick of the riddle.

Chorus: I'm caught between two lives and every second second se cond I'm awake I check reflections so I won't forget my face an d it's alright 'cause I will never never never let it change an d it's that common ground that calms me walking separate ways.

It's been a while how I threaded both my lives, spend the littl e too much of my time in one and I damaged the other I'll stand trial, let them judge amongst their thoughts it's our petty mi sconceptions at the fault and I'll always recover.

Chorus: I'm caught between two lives and every second second se cond I'm awake I check reflections so I won't forget my face an
d it's that common ground that calms me walking separate ways.

I'm caught between two lives I'm caught between two lives But i t's alright, it's alright

Chorus: I'm caught between two lives and every second second se cond I'm awake I check reflections so I won't forget my face an d it's alright 'cause I will never never never let it change an d it's that common ground that calms me walking separate ways.
