

First Time For Everything

Coney Hatch

Look at me, just a shadow of myself
And look at you, you're moving on to something else
You tell me, silly boy, you shouldn't feel the way you do
No one gets to have their cake and eat it to.
But I'm no boy, I am a man
Oh, and I thought you'd understand

But there's a first time for everything
And for everything a price
There's a first time

Oh love, is it down to games that everyone must learn
You give your heart away, and hope it gets returned
And when you turn to find an empty place that used to be for me
Count it to experience and end it gracefully
You live your life now while you can
And I hope you'll understand

That there's a first time for everything
And for everything a price
There's a first time (first time)

But there's a first time for everything
And for everything a price
There's a first time

There's a first time for everything (first time)
And for everything a price
There's a first time, oh
There's a first time, oh
A first time
