

Crazy Governments

Conflict

Crazy governments try to find ways, how to blow other countries away

Sitting back in Parliament, they've got fuck else to do
So they create a war for me and you

Looking for answers, there's nothing to be found
By sitting 'round a table discussing different towns
Who shall we shit on?
Who'll take the cruise?
Have you heard about our future on the evening news?

Send out troops - air, land and sea
How many killings in different countries?
They're sitting in their limos, imposing on us their views
They don't give a fuck, they ain't gonna lose Ain't it about time they looked for other ways of how to beat t he problems?
Because bombing and destroying people's never gonna solve them
