

Custom Rock

Conflict

There must be a better way; there must be another way
There must be a clever way (but don't give the game away)

There must be another way; there must be a better way
There must be a quicker way

Twenty-one, good looking from New York Custom built to make big business talk (it makes the women talk
)
Next new product from their factory of life (lies) the shooting of a star that could never, not ever, survive Custom rock it sounds like a sex aid, just as cheap and twice as nasty
A carefully planned deception, another cash in on reality Rebellion from the NME, costs 50p, the positive direction NMA build bombs for EMI and support apartheid's foundations
"To spread the message further" and get across to a wider spect rum
That we need no nukes or fascists, we should unite and then tak e "vengeance"
Well I'm sorry, as we can't take seriously your whining groans of hope
You made your world now live in it; to us you're standing joke
