

Hey Wow

The Connells

Is the sun out,
Has the wind died,
Or is this stillness here the calm between my ears?
And I know now why they put me here.

Things were clear once
'Til the clouds came,
Now I don't know when they'll fall
No, I couldn't say at all.

And I know now why they've kept me here.
I've been paralyzed by a choice that lies
Well inside of me
Which world to hold me now

And I believe I'm drifting
Hey, the mist surrounds me more and more
Hey, wow. It swirls and it rains here.
Hey wow. And I have known this all before.

Hey wow. And nothing's very
Are the stars out,
Is the sun down,
Or is the darkness here the calm between my ears?

And I know now why they've left me here.
I've been mesmerized by a voice that cries
Well inside of me
Too loud to hold it down.

And I believe I'm drifting
Hey, the mist surrounds me more and more.
Hey, wow. It swirls and it rains here.
Hey wow. And I have known this all before.

Hey wow. And nothing's very clear.
