

Do You Love Me Like You Kiss Me

Connie Francis

Too many times romantic words were spoken
Too many words were lovers said in vain
Too many times a foolish heart is broken
And left just the memory for a token
How do I know that you won't hurt me too!

Do you love me the way you kiss me cause you kiss me like
You love me
Do you mean everything you say and do you say everything
You mean!
Do you love me the way you hold me cause you hold me like
You love me
Is it only a lovely dreamer can I dream on my wedding day
