

I'm Ashamed Of You

Connie Smith

Heart I'm ashamed of you lips I'm ashamed of you
You've betrayed me and you've made me love him and he's not free

Arms I'm ashamed of you aching the way you do
I'm ashamed of you but mostly I'm ashamed of me

Eyes you looked right past his wedding band and all you saw were lips you long to kiss

Fool you taught him into holding hands and now you're letting tear me up like this

Heart I'm ashamed of you

Mind you let him drive me out of you for you're made up to win his love somehow

Conscience ain't there something you can do cause if there is you'd better do it now

Heart I'm ashamed of you
