

Difference Is Time

Conor Oberst

Well, call me if you want to talk
There's a telephone on your wall
And the reasons are many
And not too far apart

If there's some blood left in your heart
Well, let our loving finally start
If you run, you can catch me
Well, he's wide but not too sharp

I want to hear the whistle blow and feelings go
I want to be done with everything I know

Difference is time
It's the past, present and waiting in line
Difference is time
It's yours and it's especially mine
difference is time

And it's hard to stand on my feet
With this weight of vagrancy
I've been trying to tell the difference
Between the road and my street

But there's an end I shouldn't eat
When I'm done dancing to this beat
On my headstone it'll be written
"Life is hard, even if you cheat."

I want to hear the whistle blow and the feet is row
I want to be done with everyone I know

The difference is time
It's the past, present and waiting in line
Difference is time
It's yours and it's especially mine
Difference is time, woah
Difference is time

Don't act like there ain't nothing wrong
With a switch like that
It's just mean to keep it on
Don't act like there ain't nothing wrong
With a switch like that
It's just mean to keep it on

Difference is time
It's the past, present and waiting in line
Difference is time
It's yours and it's especially mine

Difference is time
It's the past, present and waiting in line
Difference is time
I know she's yours but she's especially mine

Difference is time, woah

Difference is time

Difference is time

Difference is time

She ain't yours and she sure ain't mine

She ain't yours and she sure ain't mine

Difference all the time

Difference all the time
