Ancient Winds

Conquest

Time. It's time to open your own eyes Gods will accept your sacrifice Turn around - bloody faces grinning to you Groaning world is waiting for you

Ancient winds are blowing They're asking where you going Lightings show your way You can not stay Shining stars are crying Damned world is dying Abyss calls your name Universe in flame

Time, it's time to bring here a miracle Try, you must try but it's so difficult Turn around - acid rains are falling down And now you have to save the Earth

[Chorus.]
