Save Me

Time is rolling back my life Who am I to all of you? I can't decide. Cut with the sharpest knife All these moments we've been through Left behind

In the ashes dreams remain Waiting 'till another day

Home — another painful lie Frozen flames of feelings gone Dead inside There I have lost your smile Clear sky, where I belong Guiding light

Can't you feel the past is gone? Please, forget mistakes I've done

Save me fromm hell endless falling Break midnight spell and I'll fly again Can't see your face eyes are burning I need your love to regain

In the darkness lives the pain Every moment is the same Conquest
