

When The Skies Fall

Conquest

Leaves fall and touch the ground,
Cover all around
With brown coverlet.
Wind takes away ash of times.
Eternal's only lies
And there is nothing more

I forget all my dreams and desires
And fly away...

Night... Night has come again
And I feel the pain.
Pain inside my head.
I can't imagine how
My heart is empty now.
I am almost free.

I forget all my dreams and desires,
I lost myself.

When the skies fall
Seems like time is over.
The world is closing in,
The words are told.
I will find the way,
Nothing stops me ever...
My destination's glory in the world!

I forget all my dreams and desires,
I'll find myself.
