Grim Heart/Black Rose

When I see me in your eyes I just want to go blind When I build coffin worlds with words I just want a place to hide When old ghosts meet new regrets My daylight fades to grey When our days bring guilt and shame My heart turns black These are my tombs Painted black and blue These are my tombs Painted just for you Goodnight, Goodnight, dear Goodbye Black rose, Be my light in the darkest of days Be my heart in the darkest of nights Be my heart
