

Candy

Conway Twitty

Candy came from LA California he was a picture of a perfect man
His hair was styled and his silken suits were tailored
He drove a red imported sports sedan

Candy was a traveling playboy his heart was made of solid stone
He would find them love 'em and then he'd leave 'em
Candy lived upon a throne

My baby fell just like he wanted Candy ruined our happy home
Baby's gotta a sweet tooth for Candy but candy won't last long

Well baby's gotta sweet tooth for Candy
She's gonna find her taste is not so sweet
She thinks she has found a real Jim Dandy
We'll wait till she finds he's not for keeps

Candy is a whole lot like him
Candy's sweet but when it's gone it's gone
It'll melt away then tell me who's the sucker
Well that's when my baby will come home

My baby fell just like he wanted Candy ruined our happy home
Baby's gotta a sweet tooth for Candy oh Candy won't last long
Yeah Candy you won't last long
