

I Am The Dreamer

Conway Twitty

A kiss in the dark, a touch of your hand
My arms are around you, my dream begins
The only thing that's different than any other night
Here we are together, my dream by my side.

I am the dreamer, you are the dream
You are the answer to my fantasy
All that I have dreamed of now is complete
I am the dreamer, you are the dream.

I know now that I've been dreamin'
I finally saw the light
With my arms wide open
I found the love that's right.

You don't have to wake me
For me to know it's real
The love that I have dreamed of
I can touch and feel.

I am the dreamer, you are the dream
You are the answer to my fantasy
All that I have dreamed of, now is complete
I am the dreamer, you are the dream.

I am the dreamer, you are the dream
You are the answer to my fantasy
All that I have dreamed of, now is complete
I am the dreamer, you are the dream...
