

I'll Get Over Losing You

Conway Twitty

The pain, the pain of a broken heart
The price I'll pay for loving you
I loved you from the very start
But I'll get over losing you.

I just can't seem to realize
You're leaving me today
As burning teardrops fill my eyes
I watch you walk away.

The pain, the pain of a broken heart
The price I'll pay for loving you
I loved you from the very start
But I'll get over losing you.

I lost my love, I lost my home
I just can't seem to win
If I get over losing you
I'll never love again.

The pain, the pain of a broken heart
The price I'll pay for loving you
I loved you from the very start
But I'll get over losing you...
