

Keep On Chasin' Rainbows

Conway Twitty

I ran after faded fantasies.
Wished on many fallin' stars.
Lost my fast and hungry lust
In the backseat of old cars.

I learned to tell right from wrong
And the good times from sin.
And to keep on chasin' rainbows
'Cause I catch one now and then.

I put myself out on a limb
Without ever thinking twice.
And more than once I lost it all
On just one roll of the dice.

When my folded money turns to change
And I lose more than I win.
I keep on chasin' rainbows
'Cause I catch one now and then.

I watched for the sunlight
As every storm passed through.
Searchin' for that pot of gold.
That's how I found you.

You're the sweetest dream
This lucky fool as ever stumbled in.
Help me chase my rainbows
As we'll catch one now and then.

You're the sweetest dream
This lucky fool has ever stumbled in.
Help me chase my rainbows
And we'll catch one now and then...
