

Little Girl Cried

Conway Twitty

And a little cried cause a little boy lied
The vows that he made he broke and betrayed
And her little heart broke cause the words that he spoke
Were just tender lies and a little girl cried

She was too young to know that he'd soon hurt her so
So she gave him her heart never dreamed they would part
Now it's over and done he's had all his fun
He just told her goodbye and a little girl cried

She was too young to know...