Maybe you don't know me any more than I know you
And I wouldn't blame you if you walked away I've been watching you all evening with those teardrops in your eves

And it touches me much more than I can say
You know I hate to think that someone could have hurt someone l ike you

And if I was him Id be right by your side

Lay your troubles on my shoulder Put your worries in my pocket Rest your love on me a while Lay your troubles on my shoulder Put your worries in my pocket Rest your love on me a while

Saw you in the corner from the moment I walked in Saw your lonely face across the room

No I won't forget you and the way it could have been Why'd you have to leave so soon

You know I hate to think there's someone you loved instead of me

Cause at times like this Id be right by your side

Lay your troubles on my shoulder Put your worries in my pocket Rest your love! on me a while Lay your troubles on my shoulder Put your worries in my pocket Rest your love on me a while
