

Till The Pain Outwears The Shame

Conway Twitty

It's common knowledge everybody knows I love you
When cheatin' caused you wear another's name
Every night I swear tomorrow I'll forget you Lord I can't I'll keep hurtin' till the pain outwears the shame

So I'll be back in your arms again tomorrow
We'd let us part a stolen love become a burning flame
It's wrong and I should go but when I do I know
I'll be hurtin' till the pain outwears the shame

Tonight I love you for the last time then I'll say goodbye
But down inside I know it's all in vain
Before I'll leave the hurt's already startin' I can't go
I think it's over till the pain outwears the shame
So I'll be back in your arms...
