

The Fires Of Life

Cool Hand Luke

I've been there
It's more than just stress
Oh, that you had the wings of a dove
You would fly away and rest (Psalm 55:6)

Weeping may last for the night
The longest night of your life
I can promise you that
Rejoicing comes in the morning (Psalm 30:5)

Are you broken?
Are you dismayed?
You know you did the best you could do
But it ended up this way (Psalm 73:13...23-26)

Weeping may last for the night
The longest night of your life
But I can promise you that
Rejoicing comes in the morning

You will both lay down in peace, and you will sleep
(Psalm 4:8)
Where morning dawns and evening fades God calls forth songs of joy (Psalm 65:8)
He'll sing to you and quiet you with love (Zephaniah
3:17)

I know you feel
You won't last another day
But when the fires of life arise
You will walk on through unscathed, yeah yeah, oh
(Isaiah 43:2)

Weeping may last for the night
The longest night of your life
But I can promise you that
Rejoicing comes, rejoicing comes

Weeping may last for the night
The longest night of your life
I can promise you that
Rejoicing comes in the morning

I can promise you that
Rejoicing comes in the morning
