

Champion

Corbin Bleu

Little Jenny with the big brown eyes
And the smile that could light the skies
She had dreams of being a star
Had dreams of goin' so far but
You can't choose the life you got
And hers never did a thing to help
Most times she was by herself

So little Jenny got desperate
And out on the street she went
Doing thigns she know she shouldn't
But all she really needed was a friend
Now baby girl feels oh so low
Never knew the world was so cold
But this aint got to be the end
So Jenny if you're listening...

I know there's a fighter deep down inside of
'You, my love,'cause you;re a champion (yeah)
I know you'll get by 'cause you're a survivor
It's true, my love,'cause you're a champion

Yeah

Now

Jordan had everything
Straight A's and a record so clean
QB of the football team
The kind of guy you might envy

But perfect don't mean you're happy
He was searching for more, you see
Not satisfied having the best
Wanted to live on the edge
Too much time and too much money
That's a dangerous recipe
Started trying things he shouldn't have Pretty soon he was out of hand
Lost touch with reality
Now all he got are shattered dreams
But this ain't got to be the end

Hey Jordan if you're listening...

I know there's a fighter deep down inside of
'You, my love,'cause you;re a champion (yeah)
I know you'll get by 'cause you're a survivor
It's true, my love,'cause you're a champion
Yeah

I know that you're going to get through
'Cause you got everything in you
To carry on, yeah
You're a champion (yeah)
I know there's a fighter deep down inside of
You, my love,'cause you're a champion
I know you'll get by 'cause you're a survior
It's true, my love, 'caus eyou're a champion

Yeah
