

Sounds Of Nyc

Corey Crowder

Without a sound the streets beneath her,
push aside to show us whats below
And the shocks subside shortly after,
was she alive? only time can know.
But you cant relive the past (can't relive the past)

Chorus:

She is stuck in the city lights
Taking a chance on reliving those nights
She's stuck in the city lights
Just waiting for something to finally to turn out right

The way the wind carried on The thousand conversations it had beneath it it shocked our lips and chilled our bones
she got a glimpse of what she left behind

(Chorus)

something something started turning (started turning)
And who can find out why shes not returning (not returning)
I can't find a trace of what she's missing (what she's missing) something something decided to be...forever

(Chorus)
