

Oh yea
O
Woke up this morning found our love on the floor
Deception tattooed cross my arm
Well the art of the color jumps back into my hand
Like a boomerang coming for more
Romantic lover in this world
I brought a letter for you
Romantic lover somewhere in this world
I've got a message for you, it goes
Baby, baby I don't know
(Good and bad, remembering all the times we had)
Why you keep lying to me?
(Love and hate, wipe those words from off your plate)
O no, no, no, no, why you keep on lying to me?
(Truth and lie, the art of color is your crime)
This is what she sounds like, hey, hey
Have you ever seen a crow fly over the wheat field?
Looking for a lover like mine
Well the art of a color is the masterful slight
Illusion for the schemer's delight
Romantic lover in this world
I brought a letter for you
Romantic lover somewhere in this world
I've got a message for you
Baby, baby I don't know
(Good and bad, remembering all the times we had)
Why you keep lying to me?
(Love and hate, wipe those words from off your plate)
O no, no, no, no, why you keep on lying to me?
(Church and state, darlin' don't you hesitate)
(Good and bad, remembering all the times we had)
Baby, baby I don't know
(Truth and lie, the art of color is your crime)
Why you keep lying to me?
This is what she sounds like, hey, hey
(Good and bad, remembering all the times we had)
Love and hate, wipe those words from off your plate
Church and state, darlin' don't you hesitate
Good and bad, remembering all the times we had
Truth and lie, the art of color is your crime)
O no, no, no, no, why you keep on lying?
Why you keep on lying to me?
Oh baby, baby I don't know
You know I say baby, baby I don't know
The art of the color
You know
The art of the color
(Good and bad, remembering all the times we had)
Love and hate, wipe those words from off your plate
Church and state, darlin' don't you hesitate
Good and bad, remembering all the times we had
Truth and lie, the art of color is your crime).
