Funky Days Are Back Again

(T. Singh)

Well, it seems like the funky days, they're back again

Funky funky days they're back again

And we re en vogue again

Before the gurkers get called up again

Seems like the funky days are back again

And the party's got a double ee at thee end again

We'll be armed in dungareen chords again

Happy days are here again mar friend

Been a long journey, long long tymes

Many roads we couldn't climb

But once again, the name of the game is funky and it's funky again

Seems like those funky days are back again

Funky with a "y" and it's back again and back again

We'll be wearing dungareen cords again walking down that road

With a smile on our faces

Holing only embraces

Embraces to hold us cos we're getting funky again

And we re funky again

Seems like those funky days

re back again

My friends we'll be wearing dungareen cords again, walking down that road

When we say party we mean it to end on the double ee

Funky roads are back again

Funky drinks are back again

Zip-zap guns are back again

Big shoes are back again

The middle eight is back again

Funky feet back again

Tax in the post is back again

Worker strikes are back again and we'll be and we ll be doing the airplane wheel □ dancing

Swinging like an airplane wheel □ moving

Funky days are back again mar friends

Ben, you just show them how funky it can get when funky days are back en vogue again."
