

Singing Alone

Cornerstone

No regrets as I look back, the final curtain call
Spotlights fading on the ceiling
Time has caught me now, laughing in the wings
No choir, no angels sing
I'm singing Alone one time tell me can you hear me?
There is nothing on the stage anyway
Raise a glass and remember, everything is fine
Now my time is finally over
Shed no tears for me, just hold me for a while
I found peace here in you arms
Singing Alone one time tell me can you hear me?
There is nothing on the stage anyway
