

They claim to be the hand of god
If right or wrong they just have one thought
That what they do, is no sin, no betrayal, no fraud
They can kill, they can steel, but we know someday it will stop

You'll pay for all the pain
You've caused innocent men
Saint slayer, time has come to say your prayer
You'll pay for all the pain
You've caused innocent men
Saint slayer, time has come to say your prayer

Your death means freedom for us all
Don't think you're safe, one day you will fall
You're the devil in disguise, you're a murderer of humanity
You're a priest from hell, you'll regret your vanity

You'll pay for all the pain
You've caused innocent men
Saint slayer, time has come to say your prayer
You'll pay for all the pain
You've caused innocent men
Saint slayer, time has come to say your prayer

You'll pay for all the pain
You've caused innocent men
Saint slayer, time has come to say your prayer
You'll pay for all the pain
You've caused innocent men
Saint slayer, time has come to say your prayer
