

Beautiful Revolution

Corroded

What I would do if I could be the one
What I would do if I could give you light instead of dark

But when I look into the mirror I don't know what I see
I am the beast who left his cage, he's no longer me

I need a beautiful revolution
When every day starts to greet me with a smile
I want a beautiful revolution
Today, today

The duality has gone from two to one
My humanity has gone from right to left, to wrong
No longer conjoined, feels like I'm falling into this abyss
My walls have crumbled, fallen down, this is who I am

I need this beautiful revolution
When every day starts to greet me with a smile
I want a beautiful revolution
Today, today

I need it
I want it
I'll have it
Today

I need this beautiful revolution
When every day starts to greet me with a smile
I want a beautiful revolution
Today, today

I need a beautiful revolution
When every day starts to greet me with a smile
I want a beautiful revolution
Today, today
