

Doublewide

Corrosion of Conformity

New, the sky is clear, you reappear
And I lost my way, a million to one
And you come around when the day is done
Yes it's done

And I wonder which one knows
And I wonder which one goes
I'm doublewide, yeah, I'm doublewide
Yeah, doublewide

And I don't have a reason, something's gone wrong
And I still don't remember, I've been here too long
Gonna lose my ways behind the sun
Then I'll come around when the day is done
Yes, it's done

And I wonder which one knows
And I wonder which one goes
I'm doublewide, oh yeah, I'm doublewide
Doublewide, doublewide, oh yeah, she knows

Over time on judgment day
Overdrawn passion play
If I die before I wake
I think I got an even break

I'm doublewide, I'm doublewide
I'm doublewide, I'm doublewide
