

Paranoid Opioid

Corrosion of Conformity

Never shut down
Never shut you down
Nobody's fault when there's no one around
Close your eyes
Another sunrise
Paranoid Opioid
Burned by the spoon
Now for dying too soon
Close your eyes
Another sunrise
Sun breaks through useless shade
Fall in love, endless haze
Hard to find peace of mind
Burned by the spoon
Dying too soon
Blood you're pumping is heartless
Can't seem to wake up your mind
Soul is shrouded in darkness
Dying for the very last time
Remember what reality taught you
It was not always just for the thrill
Bow down to the one that has cost you
Now the devil's coming in for the kill
