

Hit My Ground Running

The Corrs

Morning waiting at my window like a school day
Telling me to get up but it's too warm
Hiding underneath the covers on a Monday
Sundays are for lovers
We are day late
And I don't know how this story began
You blind spotted me
Now I'm alive

'Cause you hit my ground running
Scooped me up
Carried me away
Now everything is different
White nights brighter than a day
You hit my ground running
And the pain fell along the way
And wow I really love you

Tell me you're gonna be here when I come back
I am so enchanted that it scares me
If you are a dream I don't ever wanna wake up
I believe in heaven and it's right here
And I don't care how this story will end
No, I'm not afraid
'Cause I'm alive

Since you hit my ground running
Scooped me up
Carried me away
Now everything is different
White nights brighter than a day
You hit my ground running
And the pain fell along the way
And wow I really love you

You hit my ground running
Scooped me up
Carried me away
Now everything is different
White nights shine brighter than a day
You hit my ground running
And the pain fell along the way
And wow I really love you

Yeah
Yeah Yeah

You hit my ground running
And the pain fell along the way
