

Strange Romance

The Corrs

Midnight already and he still isn't home
Battleship wrecks like my heart on the phone
Innocence sleeping while I'm sleepless with guilt
Dirty glass tumbled, I'm the one that got spilled
And I can't change what's already been

Will you give me just one more chance?
One more chance
Can you hold me for one more dance?
One more dance
I can make it up to you
'Cause I can't think of losing you
For the heat of a strange romance

See me racing for the break lights
I'm the red in his eyes
Moonbeam for a minute
Like a bird of paradise
And I can't change what's already been

Baby will you give me just one more chance?
One more chance
Can you hold me for one more dance?
One more dance
I can make it up to you
Let me make it up to you
'Cause I don't wanna lose you

Summer of infidelity
From ecstasy to agony
I grieve
For her fallen majesty
Your Queen that's weak with vanity
I kneel before you

Will you give me just one more chance?
One more chance
Can you hold me for one more dance?
One more dance
I can make it up to you
'Cause I can't think of losing you
For the heat of a strange romance

(One more chance)
With you
(One more dance)
Let me make it up to you
'Cause I can't think of losing you
For the heat of a strange romance
