

Unconditional

The Corrs

You can run, you can hide
From all your desires
'Cause you're afraid but it's ok
I won't let you break this time
It's like you're running from the love
Tell me, are you brave enough?
As it's coming for you
Here I am, here I stand
You'll never know if you don't try

You can scream, fight, keep, try to push me away
Everyone else let you down but I'll keep you safe
Oh don't you know my love is unconditional?
Oh I'm here to stay, I will never change

I will take you so high you'll never fall
If you need that trust put your hand on my heart
Oh don't you know my love is unconditional?
Oh I'm here to stay, I will never change

When you're tired, when you're lost
I'll be the one to find you
When you feel the world doesn't have your back
I'm standing right beside you
Everyone can lose their faith
Fall out of love on different days
I've got enough for us both
Yeah, here I am, here I stand
I'll never gonna leave your side

You can scream, fight, keep, try to push me away
Everyone else let you down but I'll keep you safe
Oh don't you know my love is unconditional?
Oh I'm here to stay, I will never change

I will take you so high you'll never fall
If you need that trust put your hand on my heart
Oh don't you know my love is unconditional?
Oh I'm here to stay, I will never change

No more Sundays alone, don't wanna be on my own
No, this is forever
Baby, you are my heart, you have awoken my soul
You know that I will never change

You can scream, fight, keep, try to push me away
Everyone else let you down but I'll keep you safe
Oh don't you know my love is unconditional?
Oh I'm here to stay, I will never change

All the best things happen
When you're losing control
When we're out on the edge
Heaven knows where we'll go

Oh, don't you know my love is unconditional?
Oh I'm here to stay, I will never change
