

Better Than Being In Love With You

Cory Morrow

Riding that highway, feelin' no pain.
Storm clouds are risin' and I smell the rain.
There's no one out here, but the earth, the wind and the fire.
I know I got burned, but she's still my desire.
Send me an angel, Lord make me see.
These sins on my shoulder, I'll take to my grave.
I deserve better than her as my love.
Cause I did everything that a man could've done.

I try to run, but there's no way out.
A twist of fate leaves me nothing but doubt.
I know I'm alone when each day is through.
But it's better than being in love with you.
It's better than being in love with you.
A better life waits for me down that way.
There's nothing but heartache, I know if I stay.
I'm afraid if I see her than, I'll fall back into fallin' in love again.
One, two, three
