Better Than Being In Love With You

Cory Morrow

Riding that highway, feelin' no pain.

Storm clouds are risin' and I smell the rain.

There's no one out here, but the earth, the wind and the fire.

I know I got burned, but she's still my desire.

Send me an angel, Lord make me see.

These sins on my shoulder, I'll take to my grave.

I deserve better than her as my love.

Cause I did everything that a man could've done.

I try to run, but there's no way out.

A twist of fate leaves me nothing but doubt.

I know I'm alone when each day is through.

But it's better than being in love with you.

It's better than being in love with you.

A better life waits for me down that way.

There's nothing but heartache, I know if I stay.

I'm afraid if I see her than, I'll fall back into fallin' in lo ve again.

One, two, three
