

A Day That Fades

Cosmic Gate

One more touch and then we're leaving
When we move, the curtain falls
Yet our final destination is unknown
One more shelter then it's over
One more day and love moves on
Yet a simple exaltation still shows, no
Don't want to face goodbye
Until tomorrow
Don't wanna look into the eyes of a day that fades
Don't want to face goodbye
Until tomorrow
Don't wanna look into the eyes of a day that fades
One more night before the dawning
One more chance for us to get there
Yet I know this adoration, each will pass
One more time I hear your story
One more time I tell you mine
Yet underneath this conversation we both know, no
Our hearths still feel connected, and ending might reveal
Because there's no tomorrow so let us make-believe
Don't want to face goodbye
Until tomorrow
Don't wanna look into the eyes of a day that fades
Don't want to face goodbye
Until tomorrow
Don't wanna look into the eyes of a day that fades
Don't want to face goodbye
Until tomorrow
Don't wanna look into the eyes of a day that fades
