

Waste Of Life

Count The Stars

We wake up at 3, and fall back asleep
Because leaving here is just a waste of energy and time
With so much to do, and nothing to lose, no motivation picks me up
And puts me on my way
And so I say, im just a waste of life
I found my place, im just a waste of life
To live this way, just a waste of life
And I don't care at all
Something in me, has changed and I think I'll never grow to be the one you want me to become
With so much to do, and nothing to lose, no motivation picks me up and puts
Me on my way
