

You Don't Know How

Courage My Love

Hold me, control me
Is this what you want?
As if you own me
And everything I've got
Come over slowly
Sink into my skin
Everyone told me
To not let this begin, begin again
Begin again

Get out if it's too much
I won't slow down
Found out I'm strong enough
On my own now
Give up your heart to love
You don't know how
You don't know how

My eyes are open
It's never been this clear
I let you go
And I watched you disappear
Come over slowly
Sink into my skin
Everyone told me
To not let this begin, begin again
Begin again

Get out if it's too much
I won't slow down
Found out I'm strong enough
On my own now
Give up your heart to love
You don't know how

Get out if it's too much
I won't slow down
Found out I'm strong enough
On my own now
Give up your heart to love
You don't know how
You don't know how

You don't know how
Long I've waited
Held my tongue
But now I'll say this

Get out if it's too much
I won't slow down
Found out I'm strong enough
On my own now
Give up your heart to love
You don't know how

Get out if it's too much
I won't slow down

Found out I'm strong enough
On my own now
Give up your heart to love
You don't know how
You don't know how
