

I Miss You

Court Yard Hounds

I, I would follow you
Around the world and back again
Yes, I'd give anything
Just to see your face another day

Time is a precious thing
When tomorrow you fly away
Yeah, I'll see you on the phone
But it's not you, just shades of gray

And I miss you
I can't wait to kiss you
Yes, I miss you
I can't wait to kiss you when you come around

I, I can make a choice
To fade away or make a stand
And you gave me my voice
But being gone wasn't in my plan

And I miss you
I can't wait to kiss you
Yes, I miss you
I can't wait to kiss you when you come around

Boy, you've been everywhere
You go around the world and back again
With you I can be myself
But tonight I'm going to be alone

And then I miss you
I can't wait to kiss you
Yes I miss you
I can't wait to kiss you
And I miss you
I can't wait to kiss you
Yes I miss you
I can't wait to kiss you
When you come around

Come around...
