

She's A Dancer

Crack the Sky

She's a dancer
And she sparkles and she shines.
She's an attractor
Oh, she loves to wine and dine.
They say she's a lady,
But I just don't know
Alright, I like the way she moves
Alright, I like the way she moves
Alright
She's a dancer
And all the boys have fun.
They attract her
And she keeps them on the run.
They say she's a lady,
But I have my doubts.
Alright, I like the way she moves
Alright, I like the way she moves
Alright

When I look into her eyes
I can see through his disguise
Oh, am I surprised.

He's a dancer
And he sparkles and he shines.
He's a attractor
And he loves to wine and dine.
They say he's a lady,
Oh yes I know

Alright, I like the way he moves
Alright, I like the way he moves
Alright, I like the way he moves
Alright
