

Beauty Above All

Craft Spells

silently i fall asleep with you kneeling beside me holding me secretly this feels right to me you're my wonderful heaven sent down to me we turn our backs to end of time so we can let the moment stay hold my hand through the thick and thin as we remember to hold the faith offer me a love so deep show me the beauty in all you see secretly this feels right to me

there's nobody here now beauty above all.
