

From The Morning Heat

Craft Spells

i wake up in a town that never sleeps love has taken me
my words get lost in the morning heat i never admit defeat

and it turns off and goes again my faith won't give in the sun can't burn away our sins
don't forgive me

my words get lost in the moment of things
love has taken me
i stand up to the shadow that never leaves

my tears won't give in
